

Ramadan Quran Memorization Contest

The Quran Competition takes place once a year during the blessed month of Ramadan. The competition is announced in the middle of Sha'ban and memorization continues until the 3rd week of Ramadan. The test takes place sometime during the 3rd week of Ramadan, and the winners are announced on the day of Eid Celebration (the weekend after Eid-Al-Fitr Day). Participation is open to all ages. To register, complete the form.

Hadith Competition

Knowing and loving our Prophet (SAW)

The Hadith Competition takes place once a year. Registration starts on the 1st of Sept. and continues until the testing day, which is usually scheduled on 2nd weekend of October. Participation is open to all ages. Participants have to memorize 20, 30 or 40 hadith. The 1st Winner gets a Round Trip Ticket to Umrah. If the winner is a minor, he/she can send one of his parents to Umrah. Winners are announced during the Beloved Seerah Conference, which takes place on the 4th weekend of October. To register, complete the form.

Purpose

Apex Mosque organizes every year 4 competitions for kids, youth and adults. The purpose behind organizing this variety of competitions is to explore the skills and talents among our community members and prepare them to become community leaders in their fields of talent or expertise. To learn more about the competitions and how you can join them, please read through the brochure.

The Nasheed (New Sounds) & Public Speaking Competition

The Nasheed & Public Speaking Competition takes place once a year on the 4th Saturday of February. Registration starts on the 3rd week of January and is open to all ages. Participants have to prove to the committee and the community their chanting or speaking skills through a nasheed or speech of their choice.

To register, complete the form.

AL-MIZMAAR

Competition

Al-Mizmaar Competition is a Special Quran Recitation Contest. It involves the best reciters of the Triangle Area Mosques, in order to choose the best Mizmaar boy and the best Mizmaar girl, of the year, in the area. The selection process starts in March and participants perform their recitations during the "Treasures of Quran" (Quran Day) on Mid April. The winners are announced during the "Treasures of Quran Event."

Registration for this competition is restricted to the kids (9-15) years chosen and assigned by each mosque in the Triangle Area. To be considered for participation, please check with your local mosque or school.
